

Fluffy Kaiserschmarrn Pancakes with Peppered Plums

🕒 30–40 Min

Preparation

- 1 Wash the plums, then chop in half and remove the stones.
- 2 Then simmer the peppercorns in a pan with the cane sugar, port wine and liqueur until they form a syrup.
- 3 Add the plums and allow to infuse for around 20 minutes.

HINT: If possible, prepare the peppered plums the evening before and allow them to infuse until serving.

- 4 For the dough, cream together the milk, egg yolk, vanilla sugar, flour and a pinch of salt. Then add the rum and raisins.
- 5 Beat the egg white with the granulated sugar until the mixture forms stiff peaks, then fold into the dough.
- 6 Melt the butter in a flat non-stick pan (24–28 cm diameter). Pour in the mixture and cook for a short time over the heat.
- 7 Bake in the oven at 180°C (356°F) for around 20 to 25 minutes until caramelized.
- 8 Shred using two forks. Heat the butter and the granulated sugar in a pan until caramelized, then toss the torn pieces of pancake in the mixture. Dish up and dust with powdered sugar.
