250 g	Mushrooms quartered
1 tblsp	Oil to fry

- 1 The first step is to briefly fry the mushrooms in oil and add salt. Then bring the water, milk, butter, chili powder to boil and stir in the polenta.
- 2 Now add the parmesan and mushrooms and stir in the egg yolks. Season with nutmeg and salt. Pour the mixture into a baking tray lined with baking paper and bake at 170°C for 30 minutes.
- 3 Salt the meat and brown it on all sides. Then fry the onion, root vegetables and tomato paste. Next, season with cloves, salt, allspice, bay leaf, cinnamon and pepper.

HINT: It works best in a casserole dish.

- 4 Now deglaze the vegetables with the red wine and let them simmer. As soon as the red wine has boiled down, place the roast on the vegetables.
- 5 Pour the soup into the pot and let it cook, covered, in the oven at 140°C for about two hours. Turn the roast every now and then.
- 6 As soon as the roast is tender, remove it from the pot and set aside, covered with aluminium foil. Then strain the vegetables with the broth through a sieve and strain. Season the sauce and thicken with cornflour.
- 7 Finally, cut the roast and the polenta and serve together with the sauce.
